

Omaha Public Library’s Travelin’ ‘Round Downtown storytime tours coming to Film Streams’ Ruth Sokolof Theater

Omaha, Nebraska (Tuesday, July 14, 2009)—On Wednesday, July 29 at 10:30 a.m., the Omaha Public Library’s Travelin’ ‘Round Downtown storytime tours will roll into Film Streams’ Ruth Sokolof Theater. With Omaha Public Librarian Nancy Chmiel as their guide, participating children will take part in a story, a bit of moviemaking and a tour of the theater, culminating with their own big-screen debut!

The storytime event at Film Streams’ Ruth Sokolof Theater, Omaha’s nonprofit cinema, is part of Omaha Public Library’s Summer Reading Program theme, “Be Creative.” The storytime series is geared toward kindergarten-3rd graders; however, the events are (FREE) and open to all ages. No reservation is required

Film Streams’ Ruth Sokolof Theater is located at the corner of 14th and Webster within the Saddle Creek Records complex north of downtown Omaha. Free parking is available in the lot behind the theater, accessible from 14th Street between Cuming and Webster Streets. Metered street parking is also available in the vicinity surrounding the theater.

For more information about Travelin’ ‘Round Downtown storytime tours call Omaha Public Library at (402) 444-4811 or visit omahapubliclibrary.org.
