New Membership Benefits Include Perks for Families

In addition to the best ticket price in town — just $4.50 for any film – and a 20% discount off concessions orders, Film Streams Members now enjoy an early purchase period for all premieres and special events at the Ruth Sokolof Theater. (For example, if a special event goes on sale Friday to the general public, Film Streams Members will be able to purchase tickets beginning Wednesday.) An annual Individual Membership costs $50, with discounted Memberships ($35) available to seniors, students, teachers and active or retired military.

For Dual Memberships and above, the $4.50 ticket discount now extends to two adults plus all family members and guests under 18. Over the past few years, Film Streams has added more family and children's programming, and the additions to the Dual Membership now make it a great option for families. A Dual Membership costs $100 (or $70 for seniors).

Film Streams has also added new benefits to higher levels of Membership, including:

- Invitations to preview screenings and discounted theater rentals for Supporter Members
- Unlimited number of discounted tickets ($4.50) for Patron Members
- Reserved seating for Benefactor Members
- For Director Members, a Special Movie Night for friends, including a cinema tour and private party in Film Streams' upstairs event space
